
Naomi Mackintosh

Naomi is a Project Officer with Social Regeneration Consultants (SRC), specialising in community consultation and social research.

Qualifications

University of Durham

Degree of Bachelor of Arts in Geography (Grade 2:1)

Key Skills & Experience

Experience of social research and developing expertise in evaluation and community consultation including facilitation and participatory appraisal techniques

Wide knowledge of sustainable development and economic regeneration in the South West and North East

Effective communicator across all levels with experience of dealing with the general public and agencies

ABC Level 3 awards in Digital Illustration and Communication Drawing achieved as part of a Foundation Diploma in Art and Design (Distinction)